WHEELING, W. VA., SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1891.

Hustling

BY DEMOCRATIC HEAVY-WEIGHTS

Who Aspire to Sacrifice Them selves on the Altar of Their State.

In 1892 Doing Some Sly Manoeuvering at Charleston This Session.

and a Partisan Debate Ensues-Of Course it Passes-The Routine Proceedings of Both Houses of the Legislature.

Special Dispatch to the Intelli of this section as to their political receive the Kenna-Faulkner-Alderson support, for Kenna and Alderson must, and Faulkner will be made to believe his re-election depends upon his attitude in the matter. Then Col. McCorkle wants to be Governor, possibly so, too, General Watts, and Col. St. Clair, of Favette, is unquestionably in the riog, and here comes the complication. The Governor and Auditor cannot come from the same county. Duffy, the past considered in all connections, could not uld make it seem that Goshorn's best. All of the men are politicians for keeps, and if Holly Armstrong is shrewd enough to keep himself posted in all developments at this early day it looks as if he might secure what in '92 will prove it he might secure what in '92 will prove the empty honor of the nomination.

The Democrats usually prepare their State slate at meetings of the Legislature and some lively manipulations may be looked for at this session.

What E R Andrews, of Clay, meant

THE SENATE ROUTINE,

What E. R. Andrews, of Clay, mean hardly probable. Wilson will poss upon the great debt owing him for his continuous depth in the Gubernatorial and Congressional contests. The Clay county ligotweight has naught to go on save-bis gall, and that article does not always win even Democratic nominations.

Hy Mr. Wiley, Mason, 55, amending the Acts of '85 in relation to construction of booms and dams on streams within the State.

By Mr. Parks, Berkeley, No. 56, in relation to sale of oleomargarine.

ELECTION BILD RESOLUTION

Passes the State Senate-Democrats Insist

"Resolved 3, That we most earnestly and emphatically approve and endorse the action of Hon. John E. Kenna and Hon. Charles J. Fanlkner, our Senators, in their splendid fight against this high handed infamy, as also that of all the Democratic members of the United States Senate in their struggle against this out.

Senate in their struggle against this out.

House to day the Taxation and Finance than the struggle against this out.

Colonel St. Clair replied that he was opposed to striking out the reference to the Republicans because he thought they should be complimented on their course. They had manhood enough to it ind out from their party and had repreted the will of the people as expressed at the polls last November, and it should be shown that the Democrats of West Virginia appreciated their action, and would give honor where honor is due. They were standing by the traditions of the country in opposing to very little-effect, nearly all amendnents proposed being defeated after all. Holle, of Joddridge county, has not yet been in his seat, but arrived in the city o-day. Delegate Welch asks the INTEL> bell and Hanen.

>
> Mr. Stump offered a resolution that the chair appoint a committee of three to ascertain the cost of erecting a fountain in front of the Capitol on the House adjourned till

What the Miners Want.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 23.-Pres

dent M. F. Moran, of District 17,

United Mine Workers, and District Seclation. They will meet to-morr morning with the House Committee ments to the law requiring the Min-

Inspector to test all scales used at mines for weighing coal and other matters of

Rills Reported-The First One to Pass

The following bills were reported back nended to pass: 15, 46, 8, 32, 41. Senate enate met at 10 o'clock.

stly protested against such an

The following bills were introduced and referred to the proper committees: By Mr. Gilkeson, Hampshire, 54, con-erning the construction and keeping in behalf of the World's Fair. A resoluion was introduced setting forth that time and ordered to their engrossment and third reading. No. 34 was rejected. Senate joint resolution No. 3 was laid over.

Mr. Gilkeson, Hampshire, offered a resolution requesting the Anditor and Secretary of State to furnish statements showing the amount and kind of fees received in their respective offices.

Mr. Watts, Kanswha, introduced Senate bill No. 59, amending the Code relative to liens of mechanics and others.

Motions to table and refer to a committee were defeated by the full Democrafic vote, aided by the three F. M. B. he Legislature of Alabama had laid on

Of the Democrats Against the Senate Cloture Rule.

SENATOR HOAR'S ARGUMENT

est Yet Made----Mr. Cockrell Speaks Against It---Mr. Edmunds Nails a Lie.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock in continuation of yesterday's session, and the Vice President immediately recognized Mr. Cockrell to Mr. Gorman raised the point that them Mr. Gorman raised the point that them to Commissioner of Pensions. proposed the rights of the people to conduct their own elections, and threatening the very foundations of our liberty.

As only five Republicans were in their seats, Senator Campbell being absent at the time, but little Democratic eloquence was needed, and Col. St. Clair sat down. Nobody else was disposed to talk and the resolution was adopted by a strict party vote, and the Senate adjourned in quick order.

UNINTERESTING NESSIAN

Description of $500 for the Board of Pharmacy asking an appropriation of $500 for the Board of Pharmacy, as no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 13, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 14, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 13, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 14, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 13, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 13, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 14, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made joint resolution No. 15, endorsing the was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin who has been absent for some days made in the first the time, and the proceed with the call, Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshin was no quorum present. During the call, Mr. Chandler, of New upon resumed the near in order to con-tinue his argument against the cloture resolution. He yielded, however, to Mr. Hoar, who said that he desired to add one idea to what he had said last evening.

WHY THERE SHOULD BE A CLOTUSE RULE He regarded the pending proposition arisen in the Supreme Court of the

MR. COCKRELL EVADES THE ABOVE POINT Mr. Cockrell again took the floor and esumed his argument against the cloture rule. He expressed his astonish in reply to Mr. Harris, that the proposed rule contained a provision for offering amendment to pending measures, ine Senators present." Instead of by "a majority of the Senate," so that, he said, it there were but three Senators present two of them could enforce the gag law Mr. Cockrell having yielded the floor at the request of Mr. Teller, the latter inquired of Mr. Aldrigh how long a time he proposed to allow for debate on the cloture resolution, remarking that it was rumored that some arbitrary means in

Help by every method known to law and influence of the proposal and a contract of the proposa

Harry Holman, the youth whom Judg Duckwall sentenced to one year in the marks passed away yesterday evening opecial Dispatch to the Inte ninstrel entertainment to-night by and as he saked to be examined at ones, a meeting was arranged for this alternoon. Chairman Dingley opened the examination with this question: "Have you any knowledge of purchases of silver bullion, or certificates by any pool, syndicate, association, or by any individual during the pendency of the silver legislation or since that time?"

Mr. Littler—"I have knowledge of but two transactions. On my own account I purchased between forty and fifty thousand dollars worth of silver some time in the early part of the summer.

thousand dollars worth of silver some time in the early part of the summer. No gentleman was associated with me in that transaction. I bought and sold in the open market. He was then asked if he had purchased silver for Senator Cameron. Mr. Littler replied: "Yes; I bought a small amount of silver for Cameron. I don't remember the exact amount, about a hundred thousand dollars worth. That was some two or three weeks after I made the purchase on my own account, and it was pending the silver igislation. same, and as far as he could see, the employed the same methods, although Prof. Gatchell ridicules the idea o

PINE RIDGE, S. D., Jan. 23.-In ac garding the departure of troops, two

Brigadier General Curry telegraphs from 1:40 a. m., and not 3 a. m., as at first Course City that he has had a conference with seventy Indians, including all the chiefs in Ckonogan county, and that they sgree to stop dancing or carrying of arms except when hunting. The Indians also promise to aid the Federal authorities in bringing to justice the persons who sell liquor to the Indians. General Curry thinks there will be no further trouble.

The state of the control of the cont pointed, as only five Republicans severe their seath when General Wats under expectedly spring the following Senate joint resolutions:

| Appendix Only Free Republicans and Control of Republicans and Control of Republicans for the Republicans and the first first of the Senate and the first population for the Senate and the first population of the Senate should be severed the Senate States Senators by Highlian Miles for During Senate joint resolutions. The control of the Senate and the first population for the Senate and

THE PRINCE IS DEAD.

Mysterious Death of the Heir to Belgium's Throne

CAUSES GREAT EXCITEMENT

Chronghout the Kingdom-Whisper ings that There is a Woman in the Case-Sensational Features of the Matter.

ephew of King Leopold, and heir to he throne of Belgium, is dead. He died n this city at three o'clock this morn ing. The cause of his death is alleged The death of the prince has caused a tremendous sensation and creates consternation in all classes in Brussels. There are all sorts of rumors circulating, most alarming rumors to be circulated on all sides and these rumors grew in import as the day progressed. It was openly asserted that the death of the popular Belgian prince was a repetition of the sad circumstances surrounding the been recently banished from the Belgian court by order of King Leopold, had been in some way connected with the death of Prince Baudoin. Rumor rigue, lasting a long time, between the governess and the prince, and the result urther details concerning the young rince were furnished from official cirles. According to these details, Prince suffering from influenza, but in spite of he remonstrances of his physicians he neisted upon passing his nights recent-y at the bedside of his sister, Princess

During the course of the afternoon insisted upon passing his nights recently at the bedside of his sister, Princess Henriette, who was seriously ill.

On Monday last, according to the story, the prince insisted upon going for a drive, some accounts say—for a ride on horseback, if others are to be believed. In any case, it would seem that the foolhardiness caused him to catch a fresh cold, and on Wednesday he was forced to take his bed from which he never

THE MINE EXPLOSION. Further Details of the Terrible Calamity in LONDON, Jan. 23.—Further details have been received here of the terrible colliery explosion which happened on and England. Panis, Jan. 23.—The Siecle to-day pub EFFECT OF WESTERN TRADE lishes an interview with General Lansdorf, the .Ozar's confidential Court Chamberlain, during the course of which the Chamberlain is quoted as saying that Russians and Frenchmen have so man affinities of character that the forme sympathize with France, and have a pr sympatinis with France, and have a pro-found antipatty for the people of Eng-land and Germany, whose characters are different. Bussia, according to the Chamberlain, can only reap advantage from contact with the French, and hopes to develop her commercial and industrial relations with France.

A SENSATIONAL INTERVIEW.

Finances were most prosperous in Russia. France, he added, could bear her military burdens without fear of financial disaster, which was not the case with Ferman winter manœuvres on the Rusend were being made. The Czzr, how-ever, notified the Emperor that should a thousand advances to England, but he Quebec. Jan. 13 -An immensa avaanche of snow fell last night from the cliffs of the Plains of Abraham into In any case the death of Prince Baudoin is surrounded with mystery and speculation.

Telegrams and messages of condolence with the Royal family of Belgium in this, their great sorrow, are already. Elled seven people. The avalanche occurred at the very spot where a similar slide fifteen with the Royal family of Belgium in this, their great sorrow, are already. Elled seven people. The houses were resching Brussels from all parts of Europe, among the dispatches received only only of the street and the latal disaster of 1870 would only words of sympathy from Queen Victoria and the Prince and Princess of Wales.

A LATKE REPORT. of four houses on the opposite side of the street, partially demolishing them. fortunately the inmates all escaped. The damage will be considerable.

the three stories of that section occupied by L. Marcus & Son. The configuration spread to Zsingsheim & Harris and Darling & Scholes. The fire was a very hot one. Twenty minutes after the discovery the roof and too floors had fallen, the windows were completely gone and the flames lacked fuel.

Mr. Warner said he did not know what his insurance was. The total loss

Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of the Condition of Trade.

On Eastern Centres --- Inspires Stronger Confidence-Encour aging Reports---Collections and Business Pallures.

New York, Jan. 23 .- R. G. Dun & Co 's weekly review of trade says: It has benoteworthy throughout recent financial confidence in eastern centres. most striking feature. At Chicago, a in pure meats and hides is noted with only about fair, but in pipes excellent. The coal trade is comparatively quiet. The market for breadstuffs has been stronger and wheat has advanced a quarter, corn I cent, oats I, while pork and lard are a shade lower.

There is no material change in the volume of circulation, though the Treasury has not not $500 more of creater by the part out $500 more of creater.

wording of circulation, though the Treas-iny has put out $300,000 more of money than it has taken in and has issued in addition $800,000 more silver notes. The return of money from the interior pushes the rate downward here, and greater ease is noted at most easterly points with a better demand for com-mercial papers.

"OLD HUICH'S" STATEMENT,

He Says He Will Not Quit Operazing—He is Still in It. CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The veteran Board of Trade operator, B. P. Hutchinson, has made the following statement in seply to published reports to the effect that he had ceased to operate on the cess and handsome building of Warner Bros., at the corner of Terrace and Pearl streets, was almost completely ruined by a fire for one of the Walbridge building, more to night. Within a week of the destruction of the Walbridge building, more than another quarter of a million dollars went up in smoke.

The building was of brick, trimmed with cut stone, five stories high. The structure had a total frontage on Pearl street of 124 feet. It was divided into four stores, occupied by Warner Bros., Darling & Scholes, Zingsheim & Harris and L Marcus & Son. The building is said to have cost $80,000.

The fire was discovered about $150 o'clock, burstipg significant. matter with me. I am not feelir as well as I have felt, but I suppo is the result of growing old. I interfere with my business."

rofessor in a Public school Ruins One of

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA, Jan. 12 .- The little town of Solon, south of here, is all older girl scholars attending the public

BETHLEHEM, PA , Jan. 23 -This moraing the last express on the North Penn-Goliecter of Gustoms Bradshaw, of Puget the political secretary of the Foreign Sound district, testified that during his entire term not a single can of prepared optim had been entered for duty at the Custom House. This statement shows the ordinary diplomatic course, unaito what an alarming extent optim snuggling is carried on.

The political secretary of the Foreign Office, in reply to a question upon the subject said that the Behring Bea corresmonths and discussion were taking the political secretary of the Foreign Pleaded Gullty.

New York, Jan. 23—William H. Buttner, the fraudulent divores lawyer, with drew his plea of not gullty of forgery and substituted a plea of gullty. He
United States Supreme Court. This apwas remanded for sentence,

William H. Buttner, the fraudulent divores lawyer, with drew his plea of not gullty of forgery
and substituted a plea of gullty. He
United States Supreme Court. This apwas remanded for sentence,

William H. Buttner, the fraudulent divores lawyer, with drew his plea of not gullty. He United States Supreme Court. This ap-

THE CAMBIDATES FOR OFFICE

The Election Bill Resolution Comes Up

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 23.-Some aly political mano-uvering is being engaged in by Democratic heavy-weights

Encouraged by the past election all but the great trouble with aspirants here is that too many want State offices from the same section. Pat Duffy is an avowed the same section. Fat Duty is an avend candidate for re-election to the Auditor-ship, while the redoubtable "Bill Dave" is working his points for all they are worth to see that the persimmons drops

What E. R. Andrews, of Clay, meant in taking such active part in atumping last year, making himself conspicuous upon all accasions, is developing. Andrews has the Congressional bee. It will look strange to see him antagonizing Aldersen. But no doubt his plan is to let that doughty gentleman and the rampant Windy Wilson wear themselves cut then step in with what support he

By Mr. Hardman, Calhoun, No. 57, re-pealing the acts of '87 relating to physicians and accouchers.

By Mr. Watts, Kanawha, No. 58, reon Dragging rational control of the Intelligence.

Sectal Dispatch to the Intelligence.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 23.—In the House this morning Dandridge introduced his pet resolution-passed by passed the second reading and was laid to passed the second reading and was laid to passed the second reading and was laid. troduced his pet resolution, passed by Federal Elections bill. Mr. Hanen objected to its immediate consideration stions oill. In. Famel of the immediate consideration laid over one day. Everyed a lively debate when it p and when the House additional monday some disappoint by outsiders who wanted easien. Lemography to listen rageous measure and here give unterance to the hope that they will continue to fight by every method known to law and liberty as long as even the ghost of that bill confronts them.

Ommittee asked a recommune. Of those sheet as recommendation of the sheet asked as recommendation of the sheet asked as recommendation. The Judiciary Committee reported back with a recommendation that each do not pass, bills Nos.

that they proposed to intrude a political discussion in the place of legislation. It was in the power of the Republicans in the Senate, unless the Democrats saw fit to strangle the minority, to discuss this question for a week, but they were not inclined to do this. It would be as well to pass it now, if it was to be passed, as to pass it a week from now. For his part he was not only opposed to the resolution, but was opposed to dragging political discussion into a Legislature that rightfully had no political questions before it, but he moved that so much of the resolutions as referred to the Republican Senators bé stricken out.

Colonel St. Clair replied that he was opposed to striking out the reference to were offered:

By Mr. Kiser, Pendleton, a resolution that the Committee on Taxation and Finance be requested to report upon the expediency of passing a law requiring a more efficient manner of listing Senate Joint Resolution No. 2, appointing a committee on redistricting of the State was taken up. It was amended by making the committee consist of 13, eight from the House and five from the Senate, instead of five from each house. A communication from the Senate reporting the passage of Senate bill No. 24, asking House's concurrence.

Mr. Young, Upshur, offered a resolution that the Speaker appoint a committee to inquire into the cost of suitable new single desks and chairs for the House and the best disposition of the present furniture. Adopted.

House bill No. 27, being on its second reading, minor amendments were proposed. The bill was ordered engrossed and passed to its third reading.

Bill No. 29, on its second reading was slightly amended and ordered to its third reading.

The committee to investigate the matter the second reading was suightly amended and ordered to its third reading.

The House Kills Time-A Correction for House session to-day was not marked by anything of particular interest. There third reading.

The committee to investigate the matter of procuring deaks and seats are Messrs. Thompson, Young, Shaw, Campas to the resolution in regard to pension-ing State troops. He voted against Dandridge's amendment to the resolu-tion offered by Mr. Young, and wants KANSAS LEGISLATURE.

Toreka, Kas, Jan. 23.—There was very exciting discussion in the House of tepresentatives this morning. The rouble was groused by the presentation of a memorial from the Union soldiera of Topeka, asking that Senator Ingalls

Mr. Lupfer then changed his motion Mr. Lupfer then changed his motion and moved that the memorial be rereferred to the Committee on Agriculture. After numerous other motions, one was made to refer it to a special committee of old soldiers to be appointed by the chair. The discussion on the motion, which occupied most all of the morning session, was very exciting. A insisted on explaining his vote and over

The Legislature of Illinois Protests Agains

Kansas, had been directed to report the resolution, but he had never performed that duty.

During the debate on Mr. Gooper's resolution, he made an attack on the administration of the Pension Bureau and he also criticized the action of John Raum, son of the Commissioner.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Obio, in defense of the Commissioner of Pensions, said that there had not been the smell of the fire of corrention on the skirts of Green B.

the Commissioner of reasonable there had not been the smell of the fire there had not been the smell of the fire of corruption on the skirts of Green B. Raum. Before the gentleman from Indiana had been old enough to know the difference between the American fisg and the Confederate symbol, Green B. Raum had shed his blood in defence of his country. [Derisive laughter on the Democratic side.]

Gentlemen might laugh. The time this morning, and he was given the additional sentence.

Camon, of Illinois, briefly defended the Commissioner of Pensions.

Mr. Cooper said he had never learned that the American flag was a symbol to be used for the shielding of any body from investigation.

The matter was settled amicably, by Mr. Morrill obtaining the original resolution from the files of the House, reporting it from his committee and having it referred to the Committee on Rules. The House then went into the committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill.

minutes of propriation bill, without making any progress with bill the committee ross and the

SENATUR CAMERON IN IT. He Purchased Silver Pending the Action o

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—The Silver Pool Investigating Committee ad yer rooi investigating committee ac-journed vesterday until Saturday, but David T. Littler, of Chicago, who was mentioned as the sgent of Senator Cam-eron in the purchase of silver bullion, appeared at the Capital this morning, and as he saked to be examined at once and it was pending the silver legislation It was before Congress had taken action on it. No, I do not remember the exact date, but it was before final action." "Did you buy for any other Senator, epresentative, or Government offi-"I did not offer to do so. I want to do not remember about it."

He said he only did for Cameron what one friend would do for another and that perhaps he had suggested the purchase. Mr. Littler's attention was called to an interview in which he was represented as saying that he would go to Washington and "rip some of the rassals up."

rascals up."
"That's characteristic language, Gover nor," the witness said rather dryly, and added: "I want to say that I have been very much provoked at the amount of added: "I want to say that have been very much provoked at the amount of lying that has been done. I may have said something of the kind reported I referred to the fellows who have been going around the country lying about what his insurance was. The total loss is estimated at $300 000. taken from the ruins dead.

THE NEW PARTY ORGANIZED.

A PEARFUL FIRE.